Fine furnishings, distinctive home accents and professional design services have made California Design Center one of the Southwest's premier furniture showrooms for over 23 years, presenting contemporary, regional and transitional styles from over 150 worldwide vendors. Designer Barbara Manhardt selected a sophisticated Hacienda look for this living room in a custom home designed by Alexandra Hayes, Architect. Specializing in new ideas honoring Sonoran style architecture, Hayes boasts nearly 20 years of international design experience.

Lisa B. Smith heads up this Scottsdale-based interior design service. Over the last 10 years their presence in Desert Mountain has grown substantially and they have designed and furnished interiors for Sonoran Cottages, Renegade Trails, Desert Fairways and Greens, Cochise Ridge, Lookout Ridge, Desert Hills, Apache Cottage and several custom residences. Their experience with Desert Mountain and their sales staff allows the design process to proceed smoothly and on schedule. Smith DDC can also assist with the selection of artwork, custom bedding and a turnkey package.
